Fruit Ridge Notes - Thursday - November 5 - 2020

Hey Favas Some Beautiful Weather for Early November !!!
....Enjoying a Very Nice...and Likely Very Last Blast !!!! ...

WunderGround Says.... In Their 10-Day-ForeCast Plenty of Sun ...all except Tuesday and Friday-the-13th...

Rain likely Tuesday and next Thrus.PM & Friday-13th...

The High-Temps-starting with Today==64*--66*--67*--71*--72*--63*--45*--48*--46*--47°F

The Lows starting tomorrow AM==48*--48*--57*--61*--42*--32*--35*--37*--38°F

...Not too bad for November 😊🙏👍

* Reading Jeff Alicandros agr.news.... I guess there's more Growers in that Wayne County N.Y. Area that do quite a bit of Fall-Planting Fruit Trees...??

I like that practice for Replacement Trees...Where you are dealing with some F.Blight blocks...having to stick in lots of New Trees. But for the new Blocks... ??? I have always liked Spring Planting. Jeff says he has never seen any Spring Planted Tree Losses due to cold weather...but lots of losses from early-winter-real-low-Temps.

* 1 - 2 Pints-Ac...????? 😞of What..?????

In my last FRNotes, I was talking about taking care of the Dandelions.... I said 1 - 2 Pints-Ac... but didn't finish that it's the Amine 2,4-D...like Weedar 64... that we use to very easily & very Cheaply control the D-Lions and several other unwanted pesky BroadLeaf Weeds. Avoid doing this in the Wind...Maybe use a Drift-Control Product...?? You can indeed sustain notable damage if you give your Fruit Trees a direct hit with the 2,4-D

* Opening Day this Year ...is on a Sunday.

We will Plan on a Happy Hour at Dads Barn the 14th--Saturday 5pm - 9pm....

.....and then ReConvening Sunday--15th -- 4pm - 9pm... 😊🙏👍☐
