Fruit Ridge Notes - Thursday - October 3 - 2019

Hey

Soggy... Doggone Mess... 🤔

...Water still Standing in several Fields Ugly.
The Fahrenheit Degree-Highs I see on WunderGround are all High-50s*F to very Low-60s...for 8 - 9 Days-Out.
....Lows mostly All in the 40s... Kinda serious chance of more Rain 1 week away.

* Feed-Back--Thnx -- Yeah...the Sooner you can get the Motivate[Ethephon] on immediately after Harvest of Honeys, the Better. You want as much of your viable Foliage intact as possible... Which is why there's always a chance some nearby Varieties are still waiting to be picked. Ethephon can really screw those up.

* Yup....Glyphosates are really very Cheap right now.... I never recommend it for Blues...Ever.... or Young Orchards of any kind.... But it certainly has it's place in a bunch of Herbicide Programs.... Like in All the RowCrops...

.... and Per Treated Acre-Cost in some Very-Well-Established-Older-Tree-Fruit Blocks...???

....In those older blocks...Costs about $1.50-per-Orchard-Acre... about $4-per-Treated-Ac. 😊

Soooo Cheap. Use 3 pints-Treated-Ac.
If you could be assured that you were not gonna get a single-speck-of-Drift-Mist onto any little Tree-Foliage...and you had zero ground-suckers ... I would not blame you for using Glyphosate in your younger Plantings.... But... Thats a mighty big "If"..... Most of those New-Young-Plantings are all Hi-Dollar-Beautiful....

* Get Your Paraquat 3SL calculations done and your order in... ASAP...by early early November... Lots of Guys buyin Totes.

Did Ya Notice On Reisters.Net ... that our RGSs "Fall-Winter-Office-Hours-Schedule" has now kicked in...???

Mon-thru-Friday--8a - 5p...Closed Sat-Sun...

* So Hopefully... You are all set with your Accommodations for the Great Lakes Expo...???

If you just found out that you are not...???. ...that usually translates that you will be "Spendin-all-the-Money" on a Room... and the Grand Plaza is "Full" for that Tuesday-PM-the 10th... But they do have Room-Availability for Wedn.Evening....If that helps You...???
