Be very cautious with any other Copper than the "005".... Some of those Others claim to be the same ... They are very very not the same.

Remember the Cornell University's Hudson Valley Trial

concerning Russet with "Bloom Sprays" proved that the "005"

Formulation had less than 1/2 the Russet compared to the 'UnSprayed-Check-Rows' while all other Treatments had a lot more Russet than the UnSprayed-Check-Rows.

Your Regalia & Phites & "005" all help fight Scab ...Just add some Fortuna or KoverAll [EBDC]s for ReDistribution.

the 'GreenFeed-27' in TrialsImpressive.
Years ago I worked with "Coron" Product(s) This GreenFeed-27 acts like Coron on Steroids.

* Q & A Great...Thanks for the Reminder....

Yes -- "Ridge-BioStim"

It really really Sets-Fruit ...

I remember A NorthWest Michigan Sweet Cherry Guy got after some lazy Sweets a few years back ...They just would not set a Crop.
He did the Full-Throttle-Bio-Stim-Program. Wow.... He set a Huge Crop and then.... None of them "shucked-off" ...and then... the Rains stopped.... and then ... He had a huge crop of small fruit.
So, that really wasnt all that great. But the point is, this stuff really works to Set-a-Crop Big-Time...

How to do Ridge-BioStim to really Set Fruit...??

The Program on all Crops - 3 Pints-Ac-Lots of Water--PreBloom... 3
Pints again Full Bloom 3 Pints again Petal Fall.

These 3 Applns all end up being apprx 7-8-9 Days apart.

This really helps Huge in Blueberries also.... And its Low-Cost-Cheap. Apply in Blues right during Bloom--No Problem.

Hoping All is Well With You & Yoursr
